

This is the most outrageous event in a season of surprisingly partisan attacks. Sinclair has obligations and responsibilities to be objective in their reporting and the skewed perspective of the documentary about Kerry provides evidence that no such objectivity is forthcoming. It is imperative that an equal-time and scheduling - prime time - opportunity be provided for a response to the allegations made in this pseudo-documentary.

Thank you for considering my opinion,
Dr. Scott D. Lipscomb
Evanston, IL